

Long Island hotels with outdoor pools: Baron's Cove, Fire Island Beach House, more

Looking for a vacation close to home? Book a night or plan a weekend getaway at a Long Island hotel with a pool set amid other fun amenities that make a visit feel more like a vacation.

SOUND VIEW GREENPORT

58775 County Rd. 48, Greenport

With a pool located close to the Long Island Sound shoreline, you can lounge poolside while looking out at the water. Both hotel guests and non-guests can hang, with day passes available ranging from $75 to $125 per person. They also have a limited quantity of seasonal "all access passes." The resort is bringing back its Low Tide beach bar (starting Memorial Day weekend), where one can sit in beach chairs or stroll over to an outdoor tiki bar where cocktails are mixed. There is live music on Saturdays and Sundays at the beach. Food is available at the Low Tide bar (during open hours, no reservations needed), at Jack's Shack poolside snack hut for guests and pass holders or Halyard restaurant (reservations required). Rates start at $575.

INFO 631-477-1910, soundviewgreenport.com.

The Sound View Greenport pool is located close to the Long Island Sound shoreline. Credit: Sound View Greenport/Read McKendree